

DENNIS ROLLINS – THE NEW GENERATION OF TROMBONE

Funk that moves you. Groove that hits you. Trombone like you've never heard it before.

Straight out of Maceo Parker's legendary School of Funk, Dennis Rollins steps into the spotlight as one of an elite generation of trombonists who have completely redefined the image of the instrument.

Powerful. Funky. Virtuoso. Fearlessly modern.

In the hands of Dennis Rollins, the trombone is no background instrument. It becomes a lead voice, a rhythm machine and a weapon of pure groove.

Blending funk, jazz and soul with electrifying live energy, Rollins has developed a signature sound built to move audiences. His musical DNA carries the unmistakable influence of one of funk's greatest masters – Maceo Parker – while his own vision pushes the trombone firmly into the future.

His achievements speak for themselves:

- Ronnie Scott's Jazz Awards – Best Trombone
- British Jazz Awards – Best Trombone
- Parliamentary Jazz Award – Jazz Education
- Freedom of the Borough of Doncaster – recognising his work supporting and inspiring young musicians
- Honorary Fellowship – Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama

But Dennis Rollins is more than an award-winning musician.

He is an innovator, educator, funk ambassador and an inspiration to the next generation – a performer who has helped change the way audiences see, hear and feel the trombone.

Forget everything you thought you knew about the trombone.

This is the NEW GENERATION OF TROMBONE.
